REVIEWS

"I'm Drunk, I Love You captures that fleeting feeling of being young and reckless and knowing that you can't be young and reckless forever."

– Philbert Dy, The Neighborhood

"Affecting and sublime. The genius of JP Habac's remarkably confident first feature is that while it is shaped as the typical romance that abuses heartaches for connection and realism, it endeavors to do something more, which is to bare an entire generation's infatuation with feelings that are pronounced but fleeting."

– Oggs Cruz, Rappler
